CORAM: A.M.KHANWILKAR, J.

AUGUST 18, 2004.

P.C.

1. Heard Counsel appearing for the parties.

2. I find no reason to interfere with the discretionary order passed by the Court below at this interlocutory stage. The Court below has proceeded to exhibit the concerned documents on the finding that they are public documents. In so far as the discrepancies in the said documents are concerned, the efficacy thereof has been kept open and will be considered at the appropriate stage, as is stated in Para 10. If it is so, no case for interference is made out. Rejected.

3. It is made clear that dismissal of this Writ Petition should not be considered as expressing any opinion on the correctness of the said documents one way or the other. That aspect will be considered by the Trial Court at the appropriate stage.
